1957

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1957 fondly dedicate this Scarlet and Gold to Mrs. Frances Henley, social science instructor and guidance director. She will be remembered for her friendly interest in all phases of school activities and for her sincere desire to contribute to the personal well being of the students.

Her good nature mixed with seriousness help to overcome the many daily problems that arise within our school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS
OF 1957

Members of the Junior Class, who will soon witness our departure from this sphere of life, we, the Senior Class of 1957 of the Carlisle High School, being of sound mind and memory, appoint you as executors of this our last will and testament revoking and annulling all other wills hereto-fore-made by us.

- I, MARGARET ANN MC KISSICK do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to get a husband to JUDITH KAY ANDREWS because from what we hear she has a secret fear of becoming an old maid.
- I, MARY WENDELENE BEEMAN do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my box of unused stationery, to DONNA LEE CLARK, so she will have plenty of writing material next year.
- I, ROBERT LOUISE WILSON do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to fix flat tires to SANDRA LA REE COPE who will no doubt have to use it at the rate she goes.
- I, ORVIL DALE STOUT do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my biology insect collection to BARBARA ANN BAKER, as I have never had any use for it.
- I, BEVERLY ROSE LEE do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to get along with policemen to BETTY ANN CARR, so she will not get any tickets when she starts to drive.
- I, ALBERT GEORGE KOCUR do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my noisy muffler to JAMES BLAIR LOWTHER, so Lavena will know when he is coming.
- I, MARGARET JANE REED do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my height to SANDRA LA REE COPE, so she will make a good post forward next year.
- I, RICHARD LEE PENTICO do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to blow up chemicals in chemistry class to FRED MELVIN HUTCHINSON since he wouldn't think of doing a thing like that.
- I, LYLE KEITH ROTHFUS do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to stay in training for track to GARY LESTER WALKER since he breaks training so often.
- I, LEROY HENRY ROTHFUS do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to always catch the school bus to SONDRALYNN FRANTZ because I remember seeing her miss it a few times.
- I, JOYCE ANN MOTT do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my noisy boisterous ways to BETTY ANN CARR who needs to overcome her timidity.
- I, FRED WESLEY CANADAY do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to type fast and take shorthand dictation to ROBERTA LU ANN SMITH since I have been so accomplished along those lines.
- I, JAMES OWEN PENICK do hereby will, devise, and bequeath the use of my car to DONALD DEAN SONES so he won't have to take his brother on dates with him, but he has to furnish his own gas and tires.
- I, SHARON ANN KEENEY do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to jabber and keep up with fast conversation to MARY ALICE SALMON since she seems always to be left out.

- I, LYLE WAYNE COPE do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my position on the basketball team to LARRY EARL BETZER so he will be able to take the team to state next year.
- I, GEORGE PHILIP HANS do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my long curly hair to CHARLES LEROY BUNCE since he is always kidded about how short and straight his is.
- I, DONALD LEE PRINE do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my Biology workbook to SHARON KAY VAN HELTEN because I hear she may take Biology next year and I think this storehouse of information might be quite valuable to her.
- I, DAVID KENT SPEED do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to be a good bookkeeper to LARRY KAY LAVERTY if he should ever take that subject. That's a subject?????
- I, NANCY SUE BUNCE do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to be a Negro maid to MARVEL RENE TONEY so she will have this as her profession and won't have to take time off from school to go job hunting.
- I, HOWARD CHARLES GOODHUE do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to mess up solos to JAMES BLAIR LOWTHER since he seems to do so well on his.
- I, JOHN PHILIP KLINE do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my car to GERALD LEFFERT WELLS because from the looks of his he needs one.
- I, KAREN SUE LOCHMILLER do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my not too keen interest in the opposite sex to FAYE JANICE FORD who seems to have an oversupply of interest in that field.
- I, LARRY WILLIAM HUGHES do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my ability to get hit in the head to RONALD DALE SONES, since I feel it only fair that somebody should get the benefit of the insurance after I'm gone.
- I, CAROLYN JUNE COCHRAN do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my driving ability to CHARLES LEROY BUNCE so he won't be tempted to take hills to fast.
- I, CHARLES LESTER HOOPER do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my '39 Chevy and straight pipe, if it lasts that long, to VERNON LEE GOOCH so he can pick up his girls and bring them to school in the morning.
- I, MARY WENDELENE BEEMAN do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my legs to MARY JO ADKINS so she will be able to get a job as a chorus girl.
- I, ARDEN KEENEY OWENS do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my perfect attendance to LAVERN OVERTON since he seems to be absent alot.
- I, LOLA MAE TOWN do hereby will, devise, and bequeath my natural curly hair to GLEEN FRED PRALL so that he won't have to spend so many hours in the beauty salon, keeping up on the latest fashions.

Prophecy

One bright day in the spring of 1997 I sat in my hotel room thinking about the gossip column that I write daily for the New York Chimes, thanks to my experience on the Wildcat. With my thoughts running along the lines of C.H.S. I couldn't help but wonder what life had brought for the rest of the class of '57.'

I knew there was only one way to find out since I had lost track of them, and that was to go to the great gypsy fortune teller, Madam Frances Henley. I had heard about the gadget she had which enabled people to find out their friends and relatives far away.

It was a small crystal ball she gave me and told me to repeat the names of the people I wished to know about; then she took the crystal ball and left me in a dark room. A small screen appeared on the wall before me. It was on this screen that I saw my friends. I sat there speechless, wondering which of them would appear first.

Suddenly there appeared on the screen a rather stooped ole gentleman who, although his hair was quite white still wore it in the 1957 style, flattop. After looking closer I decided it was PHILIP KLINE. It seems, Phil liked so well his part in the senior class play that he decided to pursue this character in real life. He now lives around the corner from Columbia University in a comfortable mansion and he's still enjoying his snakes and commencements. Phil waved to me and went on his way.

The next picture that flashed on the screen was that of a modest diaper service. And who should be standing in that window but, HOWARD GOODHUE. Howard just got so tired of farming that he decided to get clear away from it all. As I was waiting for the scene to change I noticed that Howard had a couple of customers coming in. I could see that they were very good customers because with them were 4 little boys and 2 little girls. Then much to my amazement I recognized the couple as NANCY BUNCE and LESTER HOOPER.

Next a super highway flashed on the screen and there set WAYNE COPE intently counting the cars that went by. Wayne never did think much of hard labor.

The picture changed to a huge airport and just then a big plane came in for a landing. Off stepped the 2 stewardesses and they were none other than MARGARET REED and CAROLYN COCHRAN. Margaret had married the pilot; but Carolyn was still working on the co-pilot, who was DALE STOUT.

Right behind the girls came a rather stately looking gentleman who was ALBERT KOCUR. Albert had decided to pursue his hobby of hunting, and by now he was noted world-wide for the number of ducks he had caught.

The scene changed and a lovely little poodle occupied the screen. There was DAVID SPEED giving him a trim and MICKEY MC KISSICK was curling his hair. Mickey and David now have a nice little dog beautician shop and their business is growing steadily.

The picture that appeared next on the screen was a huge orchestra. The director raised his baton and I recognized him as LARRY HUGHES. JOYCE MOTT was his solo saxophone player and JIM PENICK had taken up kettle drums, since Larry had to give them up when he started directing.

I was ready for the scene to change when all at once Larry's singer stepped up to rehearse. It was BEVERLY LEE. Bev. had decided to go into acting right after she graduated and she had been singing with Larry for 2 years.

Next I saw a very modern office building and there in big bold letters was SHARON KENNEY, President. Sharon had gone into the business world right out of high school and had done quite well. As the screen flashed around the building I discovered that GEORGE HANS was her personal secretary and had been for over 3 years.

The scene flashed to a gaily lit country carnival and there in bright lights were the words, "Have You Seen Lola." In just seconds Lola appeared and it was our old classmate, LOLA MAE TOWN. She and LEROY ROTHFUS were married and they had joined the carnival, she as the lovely snake-charmer and LeRoy as the chief peanut feeder of the elephants.

Once more the scene changed and I saw before me miles of oil fields. Presently ROBERTA WILSON entered upon the scene. Roberta moved to Texas 5 years after graduating and struck oil. She is now the owner of the Greasy Grime Oil Company, the biggest company in Texas.

As the oil fields faded out of sight a courtroom began to take shape. Behind the high stand sat Judge ARDEN OWENS. Arden was handing out fines to those reckless juvenile drivers.

Next on the screen was an old gentleman, who was DONALD PRINE. Don had been promoted from his old job of stuffing Sunday papers to that of chief paper carrier.

Then a dilapidated truck came tearing around the corner and who should be behind the wheel but KAREN LOCHMILLER, better known among the other garbage collectors as Susie. As Susie stopped to make a pick-up she waved to the street-cleaner. At a closer glance we recognized this man as FRED CANADAY. Fred was doing a splendid job and had been promised a promotion in the fall, as the street washer.

The scene shown next was the Empire State Building. There I found RICHARD PENTICO cleaning the windows of the top 25 floors. Dick had the distinction of having the cleanest windows in the building.

The picture changed again and this time I saw Bedloe Island appearing on the screen. There I found LYLE ROTHFUS in his life time career as torch cleaner for the statue of liberty.

The screen went black and I got up and left, feeling very good that I had seen all my old classmates.

Respectfully,
Wendelene Beeman

The Juniors worked very hard this year to earn money for the Junior-Senior Banquet held April 27, at Younkers Tea Room, which turned out to be a big success. They put forth alot of effort in the class play "Men Are Like Streetcars." Some of their activities were selling Community Birthday Calendars, selling refreshments at all home Basketball and Football Games and having Bake Sales. The Junior Class sponsor was Mrs. Crosby.

The Sophomores were very active this year. They began the year by giving the Freshmen a party. In the spring they gave an all school dance with the theme "Springtime in Japan." The dance was very successful and everyone enjoyed themselves. Other activities were the Bake Sales, Magazine Sales, and Scrap Iron Drive. They have made great strides forward and their class as a group has made maximum progress. The Sophomores sponsor was Mrs. Henley.

The Freshmen Class got off to a flying start in high school with Initiation by the Seniors. Every one really seemed to enjoy themselves. At Christmas time their class sponsored the first treasury. Their theme was "Stairway To The Stars" with the school Combo Band accompanying them. In the month of February they gave a bake sale at the Legion Hall that was very successful. The Freshmen Class sponsor was Mrs. Thomas.

The Future Business Leaders of America is the national organization for students interested in business education. This organization is designed particularly for those students who are looking forward to careers in business. Members of the Future Business Leaders of America learn how to lead and participate in group discussions, preside at meetings and conferences, head and work on committee assignments, work effectively with others in a democratic society.

The Future Teachers of America got started late this year so the only project they had, was to choose a grade and to help the teachers during their study hall periods. In this way they learn classroom procedure.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in the senior high schools of the United States. As an integral part of the program of home economics in the schools of America, it offers opportunity for the further development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

The vocal music department went to Spring Contests this year at two different times. The first contest was the small group contest at Colo on April 12th and 13th. Large group contest in which the Girls' Glee Club participated was held May 4th at Bondurant.

Of the eleven groups and soloists entered in the small group contest, two soloists, Myrna Owens and Judy Smith received Superior ratings; the Mixed Double Quartette, Boys' Double Quartette, Girls' Trio, soloists Sandra Gamble and Larry Hughes, received ratings of Excellent.

The Mixed Chorus sang in the Warren County Spring Festival at Indianola, April 17th, under the direction of Hadley Crawford, director of Simpson College Choir.

The Girls Softball Team had a late start due to the fact that Mr. Stansberry was involved in assisting with the Football Team. The girls started off with a bang against Norwalk and played good ball through the Sectional for their first championship. There are only two Seniors on the squad, which gives promise of a good team for next fall.

The Carlisle Football Team put in a frustrating season of losing close games. The team consistently played their opponents on even terms, but couldn't cash in on scoring opportunities as often. Next year the loss of 10 Seniors (L. Rothfus, L. Hooper, A. Owens, D. Speed, H. Goodhue, J. Penick, L. Hughes, P. Kline, D. Prine, and F. Canaday) will be sorely felt, but there will be 11 lettermen back with considerable experience. The entire squad is to be congratulated for continuing to work hard in spite of their defeats, and improvements as the season progressed.

In the tradition of the past few years, the Girls' Basketball Team rolled to an impressive record this year. They ended the season with an 18 won 6 lost record.

There were plenty of new faces on the squad this year, but by hard work and determination the new members came up to the expectations of their teammates and played the type of ball to carry through.

In the County Tournament and Sectional Tournament an outbreak of the flu stymied the girls efforts so that they were not as successful as the past couple of years.

Next years team will have four girls back that played regularly plus most of the reserves from this years squad. Nancy Bunce, the leading scorer; Sharon Keeney, post guard; and Wendelene Beeman, Captain and out guard, are the only team members lost by graduation. Faye Ford, Sandra Cope, Sharon Cummings and Laverna Rawson will be returning regulars.

EXTRA

The Carlisle Boys had a successful season in winning 16 out of 23 games. They were Runners-up in the Warren County Tournament, losing in overtime. They shared the Championship of the Des Moines River Valley Conference with Colfax. They were Sectional Champions at the East Des Moines Tournament, but lost like champions in the first game of the District to Saint Mary's.

Although the "teen-age" philosophy expressed by Maudie in the Junior Class Play presented November 17 and 19, 1957, may not be the philosophy of all Junior Girls, she aptly stated hers as follows: "MEN ARE LIKE STREETCARS," if you miss the first one, another one will soon be along.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior and Senior Banquet given by the Juniors, in honor of the Seniors, was held at Younkers Tea Room in Des Moines on April 27. It was a night to be remembered by all. Jim Lowther, President of the Junior Class, gave the welcoming speech, followed by a few words from our Superintendent Mr. Spurlock, and our Principal Mr. Stansberry, and President of the Senior Class, Philip Kline.

A program followed which carried out the theme "Fairyland and Romance." After coming back from seeing a movie, we were given an all night party sponsored by the Lions Club. At dawn breakfast was served and we all found our way home by the early morning sun.

Student Low Down

'An old maid is a lemon that's never been squeezed.'

Mr. Stansberry: "Arden, what is the cause of your tardiness?" Arden O.: "Well you see, Mr. Stansberry, the bell just seems to ring before I can get here."

Mrs. Henley noticed that one of her pupils was not following the work on the black-board. To recall his attention she said: "Board, Lavery, Board!" Larry L. startled, looked up. "Yes, Mrs. Henley, very!" he said.

'Don't worry if your job is small,
And your rewards are few;
Remember that the mighty oak,
Was once a nut like you.'

Mickey M.: "What kind of lipstick do you like best on me?"
Dave S.: "Oh, it's just a question of good taste."

'Did you hear of the Scotchman who took the corners on two wheels to save his tires.'

Mrs. Shahan: "Young man, you shouldn't say, 'I ain't going, You should say, 'I am not going, 'He is not going, 'They are not going, 'We are not going, 'You are not going."
Albert K.: "Ain't nobody going?"

Lola T.: "Would you like to see where I was operated on for appendicitis?"
Sharon K.: "No, thanks, I hate hospitals."

Lester H.: "Sir, I want your daughter for my wife."
Mr. Bunce: "Young man, you go home and tell your wife that she can't have my daughter."

LeRoy R.: "How long have you been working in this cafe?"
Waiter: "Only one week, sir."
LeRoy R.: "Oh, then I must have ordered from some other waiter."

'A fly in the soup is better than no meat at all.'

Ticket Seller: "Hey, Jim, come on buy a ticket for the game tonight."
Jim P.: "Aw, forget it. I'm going to walk in backwards and they'll think I'm coming out."

Howard G. the bad boy of biology class, kept asking silly questions.
Mr. Shahan held his temper until Howard asked: "How long can a donkey live without brains?" Mr. Shahan's chance had come. "Wait and see," he snapped.

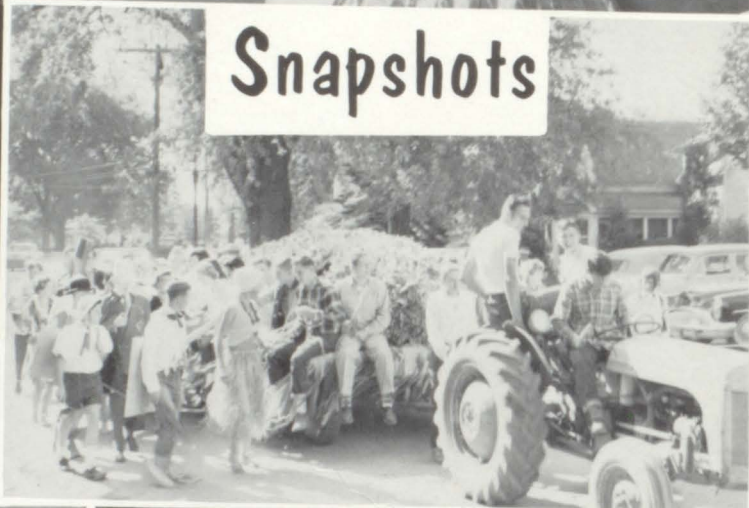

Teacher: "A fool can ask more questions than a dozen wise men can answer."
Student: "I guess that's why I flunked in your last exam."

Mary S.: "What do you mean by kissing me?"
Lyle R.: "I just couldn't help myself."
Mary S.: "But you just did."

Mrs. Henley: "You should place your hand over your mouth when you yawn."
Glen P.: "What, and get bite?"
