

SCARLET & GOLD

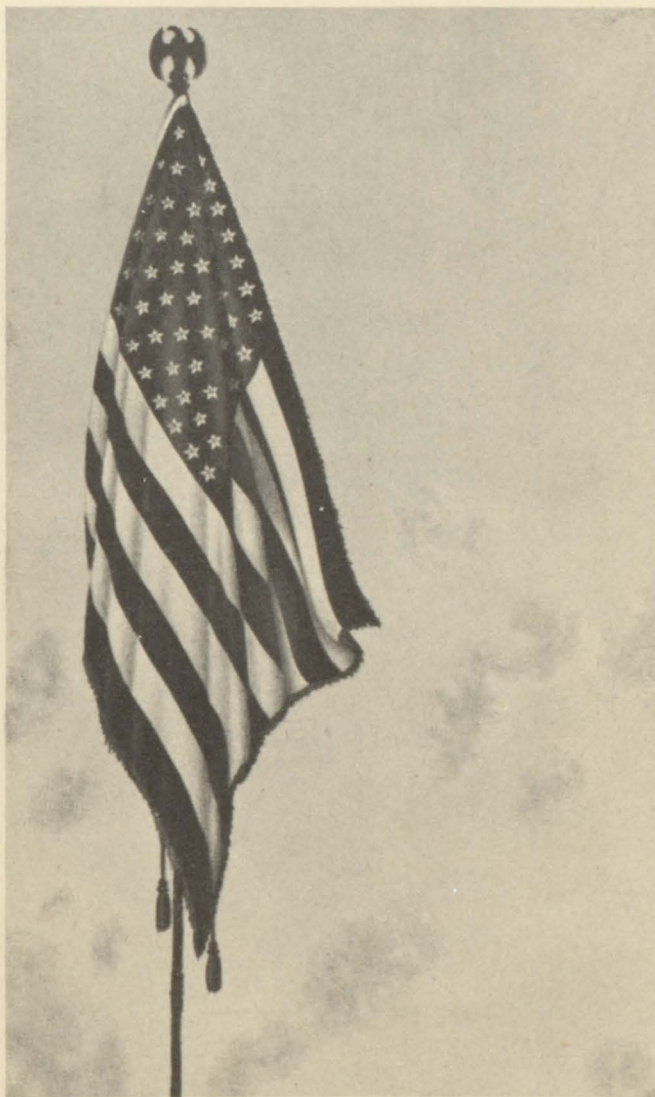

1945

Dedication

To our boys who fought with fortitude and courage on distant and unknown shores; who faced the enemy and died that we might live in a country free from oppression; to these, our Gold Star Boys, we dedicate this annual. May their spirit live forever.

DEDICATION

To the faithful, loyal effort, and understanding personality of our coach, Mr. Harold Cole, who has so ably guided us through two complete years of successful athletic undertakings, we, the class of 1945, gratefully dedicate this portion of our annual

GIRLS BASKETBALL

In the first year for the Little Four Conference, the Carlisle girls played only four games. These four games all resulted in victories for us, and we were declared the Conference winners. After the final game with Milo on our home floor, we were awarded the Conference Championship Trophy. The Milo team was runner-up, having won two games and lost two, while the Pleasantville girls lost all four games.

In the County Tournament, we were able to defeat Norwalk in the finals, after having lost to them twice during the regular season. Last year, Norwalk defeated Carlisle in the final game. Liberty Center, Hartford, and Springhill were defeated on successive days to earn our way to the finals.

In the Sectional Tournament held on our home floor, very little difficulty was encountered in defeating Milo, Runnells, and Beech, thus, winning our way into the District Tournament, played at Colfax. In this tournament we met Van Cleve and, after a good start, we proceeded to fold up, and lost the game by a score of 37 to 27.

The final standings of the Little Four Conference showed Carlisle Wildcats crouching on top with a 750 percentage, having defeated P-Ville twice and Milo once, and losing to Milo on their floor.

The team finished the season with the same five boys that started except that Le Roy and Keith were changed from guard position to forward and from forward to guard. Of the starting five, all graduate except N. Pegram. However, with a likely number of good reserves, the Wildcats should be in there fighting again next year.

Several games were lost by very few points when a little additional punch would have changed defeat into victory.

Pep Band

The willingness of the individual members of the pep band to give their time and energy, so that we might have music at our home basketball games, has had a great deal to do with the fighting spirit of the Wildcats this season. The members of the teams, the coach, patrons, and visiting school representatives, all thank the pep band for the spirit they have added to our games this season. We hope that the Carlisle Pep Band will continue to be a tradition.

Cheer Leaders

Our cheerleaders have been especially helpful in our home games, and have spent a great deal of time preparing their acrobatic stunts. Rosemary Woodyard is the only senior in the group, and she has taken charge of the assignments for the different home games. Much credit is due to them for the success of our basketball teams this season.

MUSIC

As we write this summary of our Band activities for the year, we are in the midst of preparation for our Spring County Festival. The numbers for the massed band were selected by Mr. Versteeg and have required a lot of hard work. Our High School Band includes thirty-four members, and this year's group is the best in balance and performance in ten years, and is far above the average for schools our size.

Due to lack of transportation, the Band made but two out-of-town appearances. One trip was to the Veterans Hospital at Knoxville, and one appearance at Hartford on Memorial Day. They also played for the Legion Observance of July 4th. It has been rumored that there will be summer concerts.

Two soloists have decided to enter the state contests this year: Miss Miriam Prall, who will play the difficult Baritone solo, "Bride of the Waves," by Herbert Clark, and Roland Nickle, who will play the Trumpet solo, "The Commodore Polka", by W. Paris Chambers. Two Vocal soloists have appeared with our band this year--Miss Kathleen Overton and Miss Dora Corum--both sang at our Fall concert.

Our Junior Band includes twenty-four members and have made fine progress. They rehearse before school on Monday and Tuesday and have carried out this schedule throughout the year.

The Bands gave an early concert last Fall and will appear again locally with the Vocal Group on Monday April 2, 1945. They will give the entire Festival Program.

Mr. Russell Harvey, Director of Band and orchestral instruments, American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, Conductor De La Salle High School Bands--Chicago, Composer and arranger for symphonic orchestras and bands, will return to us for a second year as Conductor of Warren County Massed Bands. Those that played last year know what he can accomplish.

The vocal groups of the high school and grades, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Cheesman, presented a Christmas Candlelight service in the school auditorium, Dec. 18. Selections from the more popular Christmas carols were presented as solos and group numbers. The vocal groups will also participate in the Spring Festival.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"MISS JIMMY"

The three act comedy, "Miss Jimmy" was presented by the Juniors of 1944-45. This play took place at Brier Mountain College for Girls where Jimmy, played by John Fry, broke and entered, to obtain girls clothes as his college initiation. This gave the girls an opportunity to capture and hold Jimmy for ransom. The ransom to be his classmates consenting to come to a College Prom. The girls received a scare when the police came to talk about kidnapping. Also many laughs were obtained through the comical actions of John Brayman, as Droopy the colored man. Bob Smith also produced a few laughs through his portrayal of Prof. Frazier, an Englishman.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"ADAM'S EVENING"

Adam's Evening, which was presented by the Seniors on the evenings of April 12 and 13 was a three act comedy full of hilarious laughs as Adam, portrayed by Keith Pegram, tried to cover up his getting in at four o'clock in the morning.

He lied about being in an accident only to discover there was a man living with the fictitious name which he had invented. Adam might have gotten by if it hadn't been for Mrs. Bean, his beloved mother-in-law sending the supposedly dead man a wreath.

The play ended with the lies partly straightened out, only after Adam had lived through a length of time which he might express as "Man Who Gets in Hot Water is All Washed Up."

"PASSING REVIEW"

In September of the year '41, forty-two prospective cadets started their basic training at Carlisle High School. Twenty-three remained to complete their course. They will receive their commissions in '45, or so they hope.

During their freshman year, they were guided in their instruction by General Hickman, L. General Ware, and Majors Showalter and Brown. They will receive their commissions under General Cole, L. General Ware, and Majors May, Blee, and Edwards.

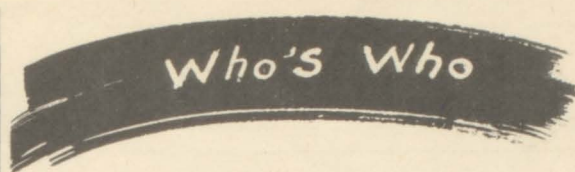

Their freshman term was high-lighted by their initiation. The girls wore long dresses and the boys aprons, and green hair ribbons were worn by all. Those who did not comply with orders were thrown in the Guard House.

In their sophomore year, they began to develop athletic and musical abilities under very capable instructors.

In their junior year, they presented a class play, "All Gunned Up." The proceeds of their labor were spent in honoring the seniors at a banquet carried out in a truly patriotic manner.

They went back to their studies with renewed vigor during their senior year, anticipating the commissions which they had so diligently strived to obtain.

As this master publication nears completion, their senior year is just half over. However, they are looking forward to many coming events before they receive their commissions as capable members of Uncle Sam's fighting array.

Chuckles

He chased the train but missed it.
As he slowly walked back an interested onlooker volunteered, "Miss the train?"
Jerry: "Oh, not much. You see, I never got to know it very well."

Miss Ware: Yes, an Indian wife is called a squaw. Now can you tell me what Indian babies are called?

Dale S. I know. Squawkers.

Mrs. Edwards called for sentences using the word "beans."

"My father grows beans," said the bright Claude of the class.

"My mother cooks beans," came Berny. Then John Brayman piped up: "We are all human beans."

Mrs. Edwards: Name the principal parts of a sentence.
Owen: Solitary confinement and bread and water.

Golfer: Confound it, sir, you almost hit my wife.

Second Golfer: Sorry, ol' boy have a shot at mine."

Dora Mae: Don't you ever use toothpaste?

Marilyn: Why should I? None of my teeth are loose.

Scoutmaster: What's the idea of throwing that spinach on the scrap pile?

Jack P. I read that spinach has iron in it.

John F.: Can a person be punished for something he hasn't done?

Mrs. Edwards: Certainly not.

John F.: Well, I haven't done my English.

Mr. May: What do you mean, saying Benedict Arnold was a janitor?

Keith: Well, the book says, that after his exile, he spent the rest of his life in abasement.

Marian Hunt: I want to try on that dress in the window.

Clerk: Sorry, lady, but you'll have to use the fitting room.

Mr. Cole: How do you define space?

Dick M.: I can't find words to express it, but I have it in my head.

Mr. May: Now Don, if you had $10 in one pocket and $12 in the other, what would you have?
Don: Somebody else's trousers.

"Well my boy," said Uncle Tom, "and how are you getting on at school?" Duane looking a trifle despondent, "Oh not so bad, Uncle," he replied, "I'm trying to get ahead."
"That's good," said Uncle Tom absently, "And you need one."

Roland: Darling, while we are here in the moonlight, I would like to ask you--

Shorty: Yes, dear go on.

Roland: Could you move over a little I'm sitting on a nail?

She: "Where do all the bugs go in winter?"

He: "Search me."

She: "No, thanks, just wanted to know."

Joe: (reading item from Italy) "What does it mean here by seasonal troops?"

His Father: "Mustered by the officers and peppered by the enemy."

Visitor: Are your father and mother in?

Harold: They was in, they is out.

Visitor: They was in, they is out. Where's your grammar?

Harold: She's upstairs.

Iva was asked to parse the word "kiss" and this was her result. This word is a noun but it is usually used as a conjunction. It is never declined and is more common than proper. It is not very singular, in that it is generally used in plural. It agrees with me.

Father: Why are you wearing your glasses to bed?

Harry: I want to get a better look at that girl I dreamed about last night.

Billie Pilmer was hurrying to school and as he hurried he prayed, "Dear God, don't let me be late--please, God don't let me be late."

Just then as he ran, he stumbled, and exclaimed, "Well you don't need to shove."

One day while laying on the green A little book I seen
An English grammar was the edition
So I left it lay in the same position.
