LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1954

We, the members of the class of 1954 of Carlisle High School, of the city of Carlisle, county of Warren, and state of Iowa, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will heretofore made.

Joe Lang bequeaths his slimness to Richard Sweeney because from the looks of his waistline, he needs to get thinner.

Shirley Gamble wills her ability to answer questions in class to Robert Sweeney since he is always at a loss for words when Mr. Wessel asks him a question.

Gilbert Hans wills his ability to delay getting to school on time to Charles Conant, who seems to be overly anxious to get there.

Bill Houseman gives his long legs to Vearl Young, so he can make all-state in basketball in his senior year.

Bill Betts wills his shy way with girls to Bill McKissick because he is so forward.

Eddie Owens wills his love for basketball to Ellen Wistrom, who we hear doesn't care for it.

Don Wilson bequeaths his ability to roll a pickup to Charles Conant since he also has a pickup.

Margaret Stearns wills her short hair to Delores Brown, since her hair is so--long.

Bertha Lang wills her quiet humor to Sandra Newton, who laughs so loud at her own jokes.

Darrel Heaberlin wills his hunting hat with a hole in it to Carol Houghtaling who has a hole in her head.

John Janes wills his quiet muffler to Richard Sweeney so he can sneak home easier at night after his dates.

Nancy Ellison bequeaths her home location to Beverly Patterson so she can be closer to that certain someone.

Margaret Ford bequeaths her nickname "Maggots" to Sandra Newton.

David Goodhue wills his ability to play the base horn to Robert Sweeney since it might help him with his trumpet when he plays with the "Deadbeats." Larry Keeney wills his shoe size to Vearl Young who has such large feet.

Jack Schreiber bequeaths his spare tire to Gary Stephenson so his Nash will look like a '54 model. Jarvis Owens wills his flashy chrome extension to Ed Love since his car has so few accessories.

Bonnie Marsh wills her cute little giggle to Marlene Rothfus since she doesn't laugh very much.

Norma Janssen wills her red hair to Betty Goodhue since we can't tell what color it is supposed to be.

Leon Burk bequeaths his ability to get along with an alumna to Carol Houghtaling so she won't miss Ted next year.

Jerry Randleman wills his quietness in the assembly to Margaret Prall since Mr. Reece thinks she could use it to good advantage.

Arlene Thomas bequeaths her ability to get and hold just one man to Delores Lochmiller so she can be more sure of herself.

Jeanette Prall wills her cute little walk to Bill McKissick since he has a perfect form for it.

Ted Tinlin bequeaths his ability to work hard on his studies to Rosemary Rothfus since she doesn't like to study.

Velda Overton wills her seat in the study hall to Jerry Bishop so he can be closer to Rosemary.

Stanley Deaton wills his height to Vearl Young so Vearl won't have to try to compensate for his lack of it.

Martha Wilt bequeaths her ability to play the piano and organ to Carol Houghtaling so she will not have to practice so hard.

Yvonne Michaelson wills her shyness to Beverly Patterson who can use it.

In Witness Whereof, We, the Class of 1954, the testator, have set our hand and seal hereto this twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four (1954).

The juniors put on "Mamma's Baby Boy" in November to raise money for the junior-senior banquet, which was held in May.

Their other money-making project was the sale of candy, pop, and apples at all the home football and basketball games.

Although this is one of the smallest high school classes, it has done some outstanding work during the year in getting the play and the selling projects going right.

The banquet was held in Des Moines and was enjoyed by the seniors and the faculty.

The Future Homemakers of America have had a very active and interesting year at Carlisle with many interesting speakers and programs.

At the first meeting of the year Martha Wilt and Mrs. Crosby reported on the national meeting which was held in Columbus, Ohio last June.

The officers for this year are:

President-----Ellen Wistrom
Vice President-----Betty Goodhue
Secretary-----Dorothy Ford
Treasurer-----Margaret Ford
Parliamentarian-----Martha Wilt
Public Relations-----Delores Lochmiller
Projects-----Carol Houghtaling
Historian-----Marlene Rothfus
Recreation-----Barbara Wenberg

This is the third year the Carlisle Future Teachers Association has been functioning.

The group has had several interesting speakers and films during the year giving the girls an idea of teaching as a career.

They also made a trip to Drake University to visit the campus and learn of the type of courses it offers for teachers.

The officers for this year are:

President-----	Barbara Wenberg
Vice President-----	Betty Goodhue
Secretary-----	Nancy Smith
Treasurer-----	Sherry Haugh
Historian-----	Wilma Cully
Parliamentarian-----	Carol Gaston

During the year the marching band has appeared at the football games, marched in the Drake Relays parade, and at the state marching contest.

Although they did not receive as good a rating as the band last year, the members of this year's band tried very hard to make up for some of their short legs. During basketball they also added a lot of pep.

Martha Wilt was crowned Homecoming Queen at the half of the Johnston game by the Co-captains of the football team, Ted Tinlin, and Joe Lang.

The student body elected Martha from a list of girls which had been nominated by the football team.

The flower girl and the crown bearer were twins, Vickie and Mickie Smith, who looked very pretty in pale green dresses.

Junior Play

The juniors presented "Mama's Baby Boy" in November. This was a three act comedy which was very funny and gave everyone an enjoyable evening of entertainment.

The cast included:

Mrs. Shephard McLean, young widow-----Beverly Patterson
 Shephard McLean, mama's baby -----Jerry Bishop
 Luther Long, a widower-----Robert Sweeney

Although the football team did not make a very good record this season, a good foundation was started for a team with the teaching of fundamentals to the many freshmen who were out. Next year's team will miss the eight seniors, who were on the team. They were David Goodhue, Ted Tinlin, Jerry Randleman, Bill Betts, Larry Keeney, Joe Lang, Gilbert Hans, and Don Wilson.

The Carlisle passing attack was good for ground gaining as it ranked ninth in the state among all size high schools.

Three members of the team were selected on the Little Eleven all-conference squad. They were Ted Tinlin, Jerry Bishop, and Joe Lang. Robert Sweeney, Jerry Randleman, and Leon Burk were on the conference honor roll.

With the help of eight seniors, the basketball team had a very successful season. Although the boys lost the county tournament to Hartford, they were successful in winning the sectional tournament which entitled them to play in the district tournament at Newton. They were defeated by Sully in the first round.

Next year's team will miss the services of Don Wilson, Jerry Randleman, Stanley Deaton, Eddie Owens, Gilbert Hans, Leon Burk, Bill Houseman, and Jack Schreiber.

Carlisle enjoyed one of the best seasons in the school's history as the girls won 25 and lost only 3 games. They won the Warren County tournament, the sectional tournament, and were runners-up in the district tournament.

The starting forwards on the team were Shirley Gamble, a senior; Ellen Wistrom, a junior; and Nancy Smith, a sophomore. Mickey McKissick and Nancy Bunce were able substitutes.

The starting guards changed around during the year, but Margaret Ford, as senior; Bertha Lang, a senior; Carol Houghtaling, a junior; and Beverly Lewis, a sophomore, were the starters. Marilyn Wells, Dorothy Ford, Carole McNeeley, and Wendelene Beeman provided competition for the starters as well as among themselves.

The team offensive average was 67.5 and defensive average was 48.3. Leading scorer was Ellen with 631 points. Shirley was right behind with 624, and Nancy scored 456. Mickey and Nancy Bunce scored 90 and 56 points, respectively.

The girls were considered one of the top teams in the state by various officials and coaches and Shirley Gamble was honored by a position on the third All-State team selected by the Register and Tribune.

The excellent record is due to the determination and spirit of a fine group of girls who were willing to sacrifice and work hard to achieve success. They learned to win with humility and lose with grace.

This year's baseball season was a poor one. The team played its first game without having a complete practice, and all the games had to be played away from home since the baseball field was not completed.

All the boys pictured and Leon Burk received letters in baseball.
