Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1960, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will, devise, and bequeath these things we held so dear while we were in C.H.S. As we go from these hallowed walls we leave these things to the Junior Class who will, in time, be the mighty seniors. We give these things with the trust that they will be held as dear and precious as we held them.

I, Robert King, will my '55 Ford to Jan Laverty because Chevys are noted for falling apart.

I, Mary Jane Saemisch, do hereby bequeath my bleached blonde hair to Karla Lea Welcher so she can attract the life guards at Avon Beach.

I, Bonnie Sue Houghtaling, will my ability to hate men to Connie Rofthus so she can quit chasing and start studying.

I, Steve Thompson, will my locker in the corner near the girls to Gary Smith so he can learn to get along with them before he graduates.

I, Janice Elaine Cooper, do hereby bequeath my ability to stay home and study at night to Mary Elizabeth Havens, who is always out running around.

I, Carolyn Cully, will Carolyn Heaberlin my will-power to be brave in P.T.

I, Denny Keeney, will my white Ford to Leslie Lane so he will have the transportation to football practice next year.

I, Shirley Jean Logan, will Doris Lee my ability to come to school four out of five days a week.

I, Dennis D. Holcomb, will my reducing pills to Bucky Williams because he's so heavy and should be thin like me.

I, Jan Woodall, will my ability to ride a bicycle to Ron Tish because from the sound of "Tish's Lizzy" he is going to need a bike.

I, Ronald James Randleman, will my ability to miss athletic practices to Donald Van Ryswyck as he never misses any.

I, Marvin Harold Prall, will my jump shot to Bob Betzer so he can hit 70.7 in basketball his senior year.

I, Jerry David Gamble, will my ability to drag to Judith Hills because from what I've heard, she has lost several races lately.

I, Dennis D. Holcomb, will my ability to get out of school for some reason or other to Thomas Lancaster because he works so hard in school and needs the rest.

I, Wanda Goodhue, will my privileges to drive the family car to Mary Kay Miller.

I, Judith Elin Lowther, will my sister, Laura a Veronica Lowther, my bottle of Jergen's hand cream so her hands won't get rough and red from doing the dishes while I'm away at school.

I, Marvin Harold Prall, will my ability to start a car after parking it to Larry Miller so he won't have to leave his date in the car while he goes for help.

We, Tom Roach and Denny Keeney, will our pencils to the entire junior class so they won't be without them next year.

I, John Campbell, will my ability to speak first and think later to Ron Crook.

I, Wanda Goodhue, will my ability to do math to Joan Baker so she can maintain the 12 to 1 ratio in Trig.

I, Jerry David Gamble, will my friendship with Bogie Turner to Donald Walker because if he remains on the Student Council, he'll need it.

I, Mary Cochran, will my ability to talk in class to Denny Gamble because he's always so quiet.

I, Dave Runyan, will my ability to stay out of trouble to John Sater because he's always in it.

I, Judith Elin Lowther, will Guinith Rush my ability to attend at least once class a week.

I, James Fridlington, will Harold Hills my beautiful legs---so he will be taller.

I, Lenna Kay Gilmore, will Rosemary Kelly my scatterbrain ways because she's so calm and collected.

I, William Verle Brandt, will William Callahan some of Kay's friends so he can still double date in case he doesn't get his license.

I, Ted Ralph Lang, do hereby bequeath my quiet ways to Jesse Waltz because he's always in the middle of things.

I, Diana Marie Salamon, will my easy going way to Judith Ann Williams who is always in such a tizzy about her love affairs.

I, Margaret Owens, will the remainder of my brownie points to Nancy Michaelson so she will be sure to graduate.

I, Mary Jane Saemisch, will Tony James Sinclair my ability to draw stick-men because the poor boy has no artistic ability.

I, Frank Arnold, will Don Kline my English Lit. book because I feel he can make better use of it than I did.

I, Marilene Beeman, will Donna Van Horne my repertoire of jokes so she can have a CLEAN start her senior year.

I, Jan Woodall, will my dreams of marriage to Sharon McNatton, who obviously has no intentions of such things.

I, John Havens, will my mechanical ability to David King because he has so much trouble working on cars.

I, Fred Rauscher, do hereby refuse to will anything to anybody. Who says I can't take it with me?

Class Prophecy

Operator? Would you give me WO 5-1111. Thank you.

Hello? Fran? I just had to tell you about the dream I had the other night. It was the craziest thing you ever heard of. I dreamed that the year was 1970 and that I had gone to the Bureau of Files in Washington, D. C. I went there to look up all the seniors that left CHS in the year of 1960. You should have seen the things I found out.

Frank Arnold went to Colorado A and M. With all his experience he became their number one cheerleader.

And Marilene Beeman naturally went to college also. She majored in music and while there she met a Chinese fellow. Now she takes care of all the book work for their laundry and teaches her children how to eat with chop sticks in her spare time.

I'm sure that you'll remember Bill Brandt, the one that decided he liked the Navy? Well, he found out that the Navy was fine, but that the Waves held much more for him. He is now in charge of supply at the WAVES' Naval Base in Peking, China.

Mary Cochran perfected a wonder freckle cream, and now makes 50,000 a year erasing those ugly blemishes.

Jan Cooper is now running an animal show in California. She isn't married yet, but she says her little animals keep her completely occupied. You see she hasn't got all of them housebroken yet.

Carolyn Cully got married after graduation, but she had to go to work for a living. She's diving for pearls off her husband's submarine.

John Campbell journeyed to the Swiss Alps and started his own goat herd. He and Alice are the yodeling champions of the Alps.

Remember Jim Fridlington? He's now a big attraction at the Floral gardens in Florida. He wrestles alligators four times a day for tourists.

Jerry Gamble now heads the largest firm of lawyers in the state. The company is called Gamble, Gamble, Gamble, and Gamble. You see his sons came in with him. The oldest one is only 8, but Jerry says it adds a note of importance to the firm.

Kay Gilmore took up skiing and she is now known as Lenna George, the ski jumping champion of the Olympic games.

I'm sure you recall Wanda Goodhue. Well, she is the peanut butter checker. She counts the number of peanuts in every jar of Goodhue's peanut butter.

Bonnie Houghtaling has become an art critic. She judges modern art paintings done by a certain Dutch artist.

John Havens is a test pilot for the French Foreign Legion. He tests all of their high flying camels.

Denny Holcomb? Well, he's still using his persuasive personality. He's one of the ten most wanted men in the world.

Denny Keeney's good looks finally paid off. He is now modeling for Camay Soap.

Ted Lang completed a little business transaction - sold the Brooklyn Bridge. He says he owes all his financial ability to Mrs. Brady and her bookkeeping class. He now buys a new Chev convert every year. He'll have ten new cars by the time he gets out.

Bob King enjoyed working in grocery stores so much that he has his own chain across the country. Seems Bob bought Super Valu out.

Shirley Logan married King Farouk and they are living on the Riviera. Shirley hasn't let it go to her head. She still drives her own Cadillac.

Judy Lowther opened her own bowling alley. She lets Wanda Goodhue bowl free and Wanda gives her all the free peanut butter she can eat.

Margaret Owens did very well for herself. She moved to Florida, where she runs one of the swankiest resorts in the south. On the side, she also runs several weight-reducing salons.

Marvin Prall has joined the beatnik crowd in Greenwich Village. He believes that the finer things in life are more important; like women, music, women, art, and women.

Ron Randleman, keeping up his athletic activities, took up baby sitting. He enjoyed it so much, he's now running a day nursery on Chicago's east side.

Fred Rauscher became a psycho-analyst. He charges only 25 bucks an hour. He is also married. On a recent trip to Europe he met a ravishing Swedish beauty, and only 6'3".

Tom Roach who was always mechanical-minded, designs kiddie's toys. His latest is a build-it-yourself A-bomb kit for kids from four to forty.

I know you remember Dave Runyan. Well, he has a barber shop in Des Moines. His business has really flourished since he started cutting Yul Brenner styles at half price.

Mary Saemisch loved kids so much that she became a school teacher. She's the sophomore teacher in Eldora.

Diana Salmon started gaining a little weight and she became known as "Marie, the Fat Lady." She's married to the lion tamer.

Steve Thompson organized his own band and calls it the "Tormers." They've only been run in two times for starting riots by working their fans into hysteria.

Jan Woodall was such a success in psychology class that she became a palm reader. She's set up her tent in Rock-away Beach, and she'll read tea leaves for only a quarter extra.

Well, that covered it all Fran. Wasn't that a fantastic dream? Fran? Fran? Operator, I think I've been disconnected!
