

Kay Toney Orlich graduated in 1963 and attended Graceland College for 3 years. She then studied at Universidad Ibero Americana in Mexico City and the University of Illinois, receiving her BS Ed and graduating cum laude. Kansas University was where she earned her MS in 1985 in Educational Psychology and Research; University of Phoenix MA in 1994 in Clinical Psychology and Counseling; trained in marriage and couples sex counseling. She served as an educator for 21 years, teaching Spanish, English and gifted education. She directed plays and served as an advisor to the newspaper and cheerleading, during which her squad was awarded a national championship. For 19 years she served as a psychotherapist, specializing in eating disorders. She was a co-coordinator of the Love Your Body Program at the University of Arizona. She reviews applications of the National Board of Certified Counselors. In 1990, she helped a 14-month-old baby be adopted into a stable home. A four-year process. Her life has centered around one goal: to improve the lives of others by providing appropriate education and treatment.